Think Global

We have to consider the planet as a present given to us. Therefor we should take care of our precious resources and respect our earth. We are those who can encourage other people to change the conditions of our planet. All of us is born in this world and we have to protect the world.

We aren't strange creatures, we are all humans beings, born on the same planet. There are so many characteristics that we share and that we don't know. Be open for the world, be cooperative and appreciate more.

Violence is used every day, especially in war. They use violence with arms. There are many people who die or get hurt. War destroys many things like cities, homes and forests. There are lots of causes that can lead to war. Through this cruel form of violence everything can be destroyed.

Why are people unfair? The world is full of injustices. People try to treat other people equally. But we want to possess more and more. Only on our selves and hurt other people. Injustice is created when equality is violated by humans. Be fair and you will get justice. Take the right path try to resolve problems in a good way. I am sure that this method will help the world.
